This game is a bad joke. It can be completed in one hour. A few very weak puzzles, HOS scenes. There is no Christmas mood in it. It does not work smoothly. The price of this game is scandalous compared to the content. The game should be available for free. There is absolutely no joy in playing this game.. From what we saw and read on the Store Page this game sounded really interesting. As there is no German version available, we started a group play on a German forum. HANDS OFF! The 3 hours I have on the clock are due to playing the game twice. Once taking notes and screenshot to help along those who don't speak English so well. A seasoned player will need less than an hour to get through. Challenging Adventure set in Victorian age London? No real challenge at all. Well, probably if you consider giving milk to cats to be one. Diverse mix of Puzzles and Hidden Objects? Yes, ok, true. But 6 (six) HO's in the whole game? Not really crammed, is it? Beautifully drawn locations? Yes, absolutely. Captivating Soundtrack? The only tune I heard was Auld Lang Syne. Based on the famous novel by Charles Dickens? The phone book must be based on it as well and is longer and more entertaining than this game.
